Scholarship Resources for Line of Duty Deaths & Line of Duty Disability Dependents

CITY OF BERLIN SCHOLARSHIP

In response to the events of September 11, 2001, the Checkpoint Charlie Foundation (CCF) in Berlin, Germany initiated a charitable campaign entitled 'Berlin helps the USA' for children with parents who were either killed or whose health was permanently impaired due to the terrorist attacks.

Eligibility:

- This is for POST 9/11 WTC disabled and deceased. Children of members of the FDNY who have been forced to retire from active duty, or who have died, as a result of health problems caused by their deployment on September 11, 2001, or at Ground Zero in the days and weeks thereafter are eligible to apply for this scholarship.
- Applicants must be enrolled in, or have been accepted to, a degree program leading to an Associates, Bachelors or Master's degree from an accredited university or in an accredited vocational education program leading to certification in a trade. Ph.D. students are not eligible.
- Financial need will be taken into account when considering whether to award the scholarship, especially if the number of applicants exceeds available funds. Financial aid may reduce the amount of the award.
- A minimum grade point average of 3.0 at the university level is required. Exceptions are possible in extenuating circumstances.

Awards:

- Up to $2,500 per semester, $5,000 total per year, for tuition and administrative fees may be awarded.
- Funds are transferred directly to the educational institution and may only be used to pay any remaining balance after financial aid (but not student loans) has been taken into account.
- The scholarship is granted for a minimum of one year (two semesters) but may be renewed every year until the course of study is completed, provided sufficient funds are available.
- Recipients are eligible to make one visit to Berlin, Germany, to attend language courses during their studies.

Application:

- Applications must include an application form, personal statement, brief essay about the German-American relationship, two letters of recommendation, a current college transcript (high school transcript for incoming freshmen), birth or adoption certificate, proof of parent's disability and connection to 9/11 or service at Ground Zero, applicant photograph, tuition statement or invoice from the educational institution.
- Application form : http://www.cc-stiftung.de/wordpress/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/CBS-Application-Form-2021.pdf

Dates:

- Students may apply at any point in their studies, as long as they have not completed their respective program.
- Applications are accepted year-round but are only reviewed in November and June for the upcoming spring and fall semesters, respectively.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship Resources for Line of Duty Deaths & Line of Duty Disability Dependents

FAMILIES OF FREEDOM SCHOLARSHIP FUND & 9/11 SCHOLARSHIP ALLIANCE

Eligibility:

- Registrants must be dependent children, spouses, or domestic partners of 9/11 victims, including airplane crew and passengers; World Trade Center and Pentagon workers and visitors; and relief workers, including firefighters, emergency medical personnel, and law enforcement personnel, who were involved in the rescue efforts.
- Parents and siblings of victims are not eligible unless they can provide documentation of financial dependence on the victim.
- All scholarship applicants must complete the registration process prior to submitting their first application. The Families of Freedom Scholarship Fund is only accepting registrations for victims who passed away on the day of September 11, 2001. Registration for the families of disabled victims is closed.
- Families of Freedom Scholarships are available for children who enroll in a program of postsecondary study by age 24. (Those children who turn 24 during their course of study must then continue their program of study uninterrupted, with the exception of summer vacations, in order to continue receiving scholarship assistance.)
- Students who show no financial need may receive a modest onetime award, but they will not qualify to reapply. If a student has received a no need award in the past they will no longer qualify for additional funding.

Permanently Disabled Guidelines

- Permanently disabled individuals must be deemed disabled by the Social Security Administration and have successfully completed the Families of Freedom registration process prior to September 30, 2016. The registration period has closed indefinitely for victims who were permanently disabled as a direct result of 9/11.
- Children of disabled registrants must have been born after September 11, 2001 but prior to September 30, 2008 in order to be eligible.

Awards:

- Students who show no financial need are eligible for a one-time modest award.
- Scholarships may be used to attend an accredited vocational-technical school, trade school, two-year college, four-year college, or university located in the United States.
- Funds are only available for undergraduate study.
- Families of Freedom Scholarships are available for postsecondary study only. The Families of Freedom Scholarship Fund does not provide scholarships for elementary or secondary school.
- Families of Freedom Scholarship recipients may receive need-based scholarship awards for up to four years, or the equivalent if attendance is part-time, depending on total funding available.
- Eligibility for scholarship assistance is always based on financial need, as calculated by our financial need formula.
- Families of Freedom Scholarships are not provided to pay tuition or student loans retroactively.
- Although conditions may change over time, including the percentage of financial need covered, retroactive payments will not be made from the Fund to past recipients.

Application:

- Grades are not considered in determining initial eligibility for Families of Freedom scholarships or the value of scholarship awards. However, a transcript of grades is required to verify enrollment and course completion for prior terms.
- Students must apply each year for awards from the Fund in order to determine continued eligibility and award amount.
- Eligibility for scholarship assistance is always based on financial need. Award amounts for eligible students may change yearly, based on changes in family finances, changes in tuition rates, and current actuarial projections for the Fund.
- Applicants must complete a one time registration process that should be done as soon as possible, regardless of age or enrollment status. All Children in a familiar can be registered at the same time.
- Registration is only open for families that their loved ones were deceased on 9/11
- All applications and documents have to be electronically submitted

Dates:

- Contact the Families of Freedom fund at info@familiesoffreedom.org regarding the dates of the scholarship, as it varies each season.

NATIONAL FALLEN FIREFIGHTERS FOUNDATION SARBANES SCHOLARSHIP

Eligibility:

- Awards will be determined based upon a composite score that considers financial need, with an emphasis on academic performance. Applicants with higher composite scores will receive enhanced scholarship awards.
- Spouses and life partners are automatically assigned a top tier score on academic performance and financial need, exempting them from providing financial information.
- Academic performance for children and stepchildren will be assessed based on an evaluation of factors including:
    - (i) whether they are pursuing a major in either public safety or a STEM subject (Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics);
    - (ii) the nature of the applicant's course load and current GPA.
- Financial need for children and stepchildren will be assessed based upon an evaluation of the applicant's FAFSA Student Aid Report which should be submitted with the online application, but is not required. Applicants who do not submit financial information will have lower composite scores which will lead to a lower scholarship award.
- The Foundation will also help identify other sources of assistance.

Awards:

- The number of recipients and amount of award varies according to financial need, statement of interest, and other circumstances.
- The Foundation will also help identify other sources of assistance.

Application:

- Recipients are selected based on a composite score that considers financial need with an emphasis on academic performance, their submitted current transcript, a statement of interest and two letters of recommendation (at least one from a member of the fire service).
- Application to the Sarbanes Scholarship also enrolls the student for several other partner scholarships.

Dates:

- The online application process opens on January 1st and closes on March 1st of each year. The online application can be accessed on the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation website at www.firehero.org.

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

Eligibility:

- This is for LODD and permanently and totally disabled and must be APPROVED for PSOB. Educational assistance through the PSOEA Program is available to the spouse or children of a public safety officer after the PSOB death or disability claim process has been completed and benefits have been awarded.
- The spouse of a public safety officer is eligible to receive PSOEA funds for educational expenses at any time during his or her lifetime.
- Children who were listed on the PSOB are eligible to receive educational assistance for expenses that occur prior to their 27th birthday.
- A spouse or child is eligible to receive PSOEA funds for a period no greater than 45 months of full-time education or a proportionate period of a part-time program.
- Eligible applicants may be paid retroactively for past semesters.
- Students attending college in NY State are now eligible to receive the PSOB Funds in addition to NYS TAP (HESC/WTC Scholarship).

Awards:

- Recipients will receive $1,224 (after Oct. 1, 2018) per month of class attendance. All award amounts are proportionately less for part-time students. The educational assistance may be used to defray relevant expenses, including tuition and fees, room and board, books, supplies, and other education-related costs.
- PSOEA award payments are made through the U.S. Department of the Treasury and sent directly to the claimant. A check is mailed to the applicant's home address (as provided on the PSOEA application) within 14 business days after he or she receives a notification letter.
- Payment can also be made by direct deposit if the applicant provides banking information.
- If the decision is unfavorable, the claimant will receive the grounds for that finding and have 30 days from receipt of notification to request an appeal of the decision and offer any new evidence or line of reasoning on the issues in controversy.

Application:

- Even though applicants can apply for retroactive assistance for all semesters already completed, they can request prospective assistance only for the current or upcoming semester. Therefore, applicants who are still in school typically receive multiple PSOEA awards as they submit updated documentation each time they complete one semester and prepare to attend the next. This is to ensure that students continue their schooling and make satisfactory progress, as PSOEA payments may be discontinued if the student does not achieve at least a 2.0 (letter grade of "C") grade point average.

Dates:

- The application process is ongoing. Once an application is approved, the award will be received 4-6 weeks after.
