

FDNY MEMBERS NIGHT

OCTOBER 20, 2022

5PM-8PM

New York City Fire Museum

278 Spring Street

New York, NY

Firehouse: The Photography of Jill Freedman

Join us after-hours for a special private viewing for FDNY members

light fare and refreshments will be served

Firehouse will be on display October 12-April 2

Originally published in 1977, a new release of the book Firehouse by Jill Freedman and Dennis Smith, edited by retired FDNY member Keith Nicoliello, will be available for discounted purchase to FDNY members

Brought to you by the New York City Fire Museum and the Jill Freedman Family Estate
For more information go to www.nycfiremuseum.org

JILL FREEDMAN was a highly respected New York City documentary Photographer whose award-winning work is included in the permanent collections of The Smithsonian American Art Museum, The International Center of Photography, George Eastman House, The Museum of Modern Art, National Gallery of Ireland, the Museum of the City of New York, the New York Public Library, the Carnegie Museum of Art, Boston Fine Arts Museum, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, The Bibliotheque Nationale, Paris, among others. She appeared in solo and group exhibitions throughout the world, and contributed to many prominent publications.

Jill is best known for her street and documentary photography. She published seven books, Old News: Resurrection City, Circus Day; Firehouse; Street Cops; A Time That Was: Irish Moments; Jill's Dogs and Ireland, Ever. Jill lived in Greenwich Village and the Upper West Side of New York City.

DENNIS SMITH was an FDNY firefighter and author. He was the author of 16 books including the original Firehouse and Report from Engine Co. 82, a chronicle of his career as a firefighter with the New York City Fire Department in a South Bronx firehouse from the late 1960s and into the 1970s. Smith served for 18 years as a New York City firefighter, from 1963 to 1981, and is the most well-known advocate for firefighters in the United States. After 9/11, he chronicled the 57 days he spent in rescue and recovery operations at the World Trade Center collapse in a bestselling book, Report from Ground Zero.

KEITH NICOLIELLO retired from the FDNY after 39 1/2 years. Keith moved to Brooklyn and took the written and physical test in Brooklyn for Fireman, FD no. 3040. He was number 1399 on the list and was appointed on 11-20-80 as one of 100 men in his class. Keith was assigned to Engine Co. 3 (1980-1981), transferred to Engine Co. 59 (1981-1983), transferred "across the floor" to Ladder Co. 30 (1983-2020). His last tour was 5-19-2020. Keith lives in Orangeburg, NY.