EARLY VOTING

The Office of Labor Relations (OLR) has determined that, because of early voting, they no longer need to offer our members release time to vote on Election Day.

The UFA is therefore encouraging members who are working on Election Day (Tuesday, November 8) to get out and vote early.

Early voting is currently open and will run until Monday, November 7, 2022. Be advised that early voting sites and poll locations may be different than your Election Day polling site.

Please visit <https://vote.NYC> to find your polling location for early voting. Additional information, such as sample ballots and estimated site wait times can also be found on this website.

We urge all members to get out and vote!

Fraternally,
