The Department has announced that the passing of retired Lieutenant James J. Burns of Engine 46 was caused by illness sustained during the rescue and recovery efforts in the aftermath of the attacks on the World Trade Center. Lieutenant James Burns was appointed on February 9, 1963, and served the Department until his retirement on September 12, 2002. We extend our condolences to the family and friends of Lieutenant James Burns.

*Off duty members and their families are invited to attend the services in honor of retired Lieutenant James J. Burns.
Members should wear Class A Uniform.*

Fraternally,
