The Department has announced that the passing of retired Lieutenant James K. Donohue of Ladder 8 was caused by illness sustained during the rescue and recovery efforts in the aftermath of the attacks on the World Trade Center. Lieutenant James Donohue was appointed on January 10, 1981, and served the Department until his retirement on December 18, 2010. We extend our condolences to the family and friends of Lieutenant James Donohue.

Off duty members and their families are invited to attend the services in honor of retired Lieutenant James Donohue. Members should wear Class A Uniform.

Fraternally,

Vincent Speciale
Recording Secretary
