UFA RAISES CONCERNS OVER CONCRETE BIKE LANE BARRIERS

The UFA continues to advocate for both firefighter and public safety as concrete bike lane barriers create ongoing safety concerns, putting members at risk and impeding our ability to operate efficiently.

Following the Bronx fire on East 174th Street, Bronx Trustee Marc Doré appeared on News 12 to highlight the issue and the need to improve the functionality of bike lanes.

While not opposed to bike lanes, the focus remains on safer designs that allow for proper emergency access.
